HOW TO REACH THE MEETING VENUE

BY AIR:

1. George Best Belfast City Airport

Belfast City Airport is 9km from the meeting venue and just 4Km from Belfast City Centre. Aer Lingus, British Airways, KLM, Easyjet and Loganair all fly to and from Belfast City Airport.

The Translink Airport Express 600 bus service runs between the airport and Belfast City Centre.

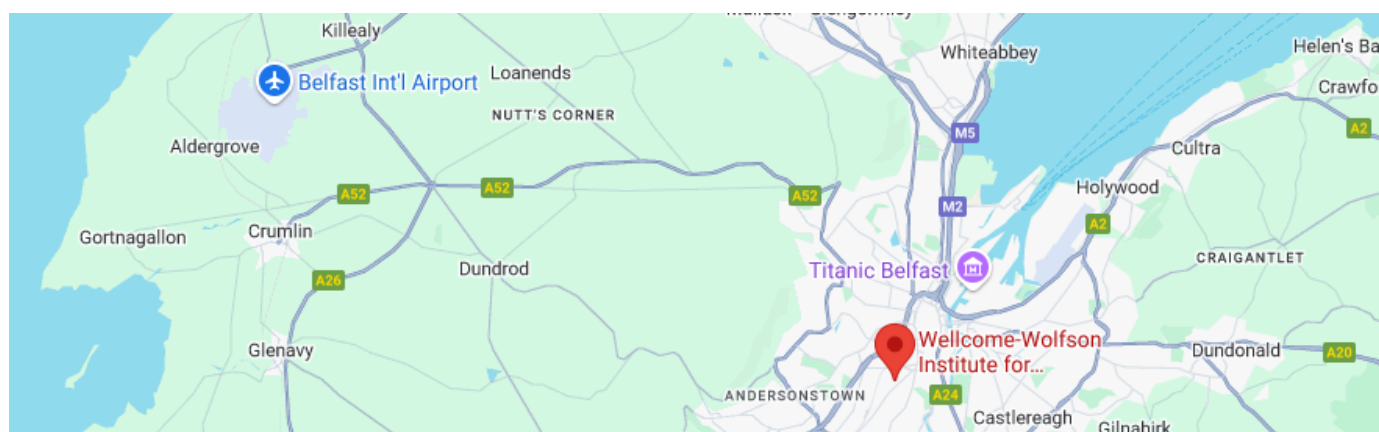

2. Belfast International Airport

Belfast International Airport is 26 km from the meeting venue and about 32 km (30-minute drive) from Belfast City Centre. EasyJet, Ryanair, TUI and Jet2 all fly to and from Belfast International Airport.

The Translink Airport Express 300 bus service runs between the airport and Belfast City Centre.

You have also other options to choose from when you're traveling from the Airports to Belfast city center: Belfast International Airport taxi/ Uber and Bolt and private Belfast International Airport transfer.

3. Dublin Airport

Dublin Airport is an approximately 2 hours (158 km) drive from Belfast. There are numerous bus services running from the airport, best to leave from Terminal 1 entrance as all buses stop there (it is about 5 minutes walk from Terminal 2 entrance at Dublin airport).

Translink Goldliners, Dublin Express and Aircoach all leave from the vicinity of Terminal 1 entrance of Dublin airport. Pre-booking is advised, but not strictly speaking necessary. If you miss your bus (or you are early), the same company will take you on if there is space. If you want to travel with a different company then you need to buy another ticket.

3.1. Getting to Belfast from Dublin city centre

3.1.1. By Rail

From Dublin and Republic of Ireland

Irish Rail operates services from towns and cities across the Republic of Ireland to Dublin's Connolly Station, where you can then catch a connecting train to Belfast.

The Enterprise Train service from Dublin's Connolly Station to Lanyon Station runs eight times daily (five times on Sundays) and takes 2 hours 15 minutes. Book in advance at www.irishrail.ie for the best value fares.

Your Enterprise ticket includes a free Metro Bus Service from Lanyon Station to the city centre (Belfast City Hall area).

3.1.2. By Bus

From Dublin centre (stops at the airport as well)

From Dublin, the X1 bus service operates from Dublin Busáras in the city centre and Dublin Airport to Belfast, with 21 departures every day.

The journey time from Dublin to Belfast is approximately 2 hours.
